

You have registered with a local GP practice so that we can keep a record of the care we provide you

Your health record includes basic information like name and date of birth as well as sensitive health information – including Coronavirus symptoms or status

We access the information and share it information with other health or care providers so that we can give you the best care possible

You have rights when it comes to your information. You can make a complaint, ask for a copy or raise objections or concerns

We use your information to check that the care we are delivering is safe and effective

Sometimes we are required to share your information by law, such as with the police or to prevent the spread of infectious diseases

We will work hard to keep your information safe and secure

If you have any questions or need more information about privacy, please speak with the healthcare provider that is supporting you.
